

Lindsay Burns of Style Savvy appears on KTNV's ABC Morning Show

Las Vegas, NV – December 6, 2006 -- Lindsay Burns, Personal Style Specialist with Style Savvy, was recently featured on KTNV's Saturday Morning Show. (KTNV Channel 13 is the Las Vegas ABC affiliate). Hosts Tiffany Sargent and Christine Beltran visited with Lindsay in her own closet to discuss the essentials of closet organization as well as career and holiday dressing.

Lindsay discussed with Christine and Tiffany why a wardrobe with fewer great pieces is better than a closet stuffed full of "so-so" clothes.

Lindsay also made the point that when arranging one's closet it is very important to get everything "out of drawers", because what you don't see, you won't wear. She emphasized that closet organization is based on season first, than function and finally color.

Lastly, the co-hosts asked Lindsay for some quick and easy style tips and discussed doing full makeovers on a future show.

About Style Savvy

Style Savvy is a personalized style service tailored to helping "you" create a more fabulous "YOU". Since everyone has different wants, needs and budgets, Style Savvy's first goal is to determine what you, personally, want, from a full wardrobe makeover to a special outfit for one particular occasion. Style Savvy's service frequently begins with a complete closet assessment including explanations of what cuts, colors, fabrics and lengths are most complementary. Other services include personal shopping, gift buying, party plans for friends to have "fashion and style" evenings together, event styling and customized fashion and wardrobe wants and needs.
